License fees

Beginning January 2018, there is a $200 annual license fee for the use of the TJQMBB program. The License for the use of TJQMBB will cover the following benefits for the Licensee and its partner organizations/agencies:

- unlimited use of the program in local communities.
- access to free TJQMBB instructional materials available online at tjqmbb.org.
- authorization to sponsor a maximum of 10 in-state TJQMBB training workshops (16 hours each) and 20 refresher courses (each ranging from 4 to 8 hours) conducted by authorized trainers, approved by Fuzhong Li, the program owner and developer, at local community sites. The maximum limits specified in this section apply to the combined total of the Licensee and its partner organizations/agencies. A $100 fee will apply for each additional workshop or refresher course sponsored by the Licensee or its partner organizations/agencies beyond the maximum limits specified in this section.
- authorization to sponsor out-of-state workshops and/or refresher courses with payment to EA of an additional $50 fee for each out-of-state workshop or refresher course.
